Connor decided to attend the Auto Service Technology program after talking to Mr. Yax who "sold him" on the program. He has always been interested in cars, but didn't know much about them and wanted to see if he was interested in working in the field. Connor is currently attending the University of Northwestern Ohio where he is studying Medium/Heavy Duty Diesel Technology. He would ultimately like to own his own shop someday.

Katie Manghillis, Class of 2005

Katie received a bachelor's in Education from the University of British Columbia (UBC) and her master's in Deaf Education from Kent State University. While at UBC, she received a Dean of Education scholarship; she believes she was chosen because CVCC had put her so far ahead of her peers. Katie attended CVCC because she wanted to be a teacher and always had a passion for working with the deaf community. She currently works for the Langley School District and primarily deals with K-12 students who have been identified as deaf or hard-of-hearing to assure they have the right tools in the classroom to be successful and learn at the same rate as their peers.

Anthony Citraro, Class of 2016

Looking to get a head start in his career, Anthony appreciated the quality skills he obtained at CVCC. After graduating, he went on to college at Kent State University to pursue further education in the programming field. CVCC put Anthony years ahead of his college colleagues, which further helped him excel in the program and secure early internships. Anthony is currently a software engineer for Microsoft, working specifically with Bing Ad systems.

Gavin Bowman, Class of 2017

Gavin knew he wanted to study computer science and programming; CVCC's PSD program gave him a head start by providing quality instruction and hands-on labs. He was able to obtain an internship with Sherwin Williams after high school due to the education and experience from the PSD program. CVCC is a huge component to Gavin getting to where he is today.

Elizabeth Imrie, Class of 2020

Lizzie not only gained a solid base of knowledge and skills while at CVCC, but found something she was passionate about in the Sports Medicine program. Upon completing the CVCC program, Lizzie attended Notre Dame College where she was a member of the women's basketball team, and majored in biology with an Exercise Science concentration, with an additional minor in Health Education and Psychology. With the college credits from CVCC and her CCP classes, Lizzie will complete her undergraduate degree early and begin a Physician's Assistant Master's program leading to her future career.

Madison Vance, Class of 2021

As a former athlete, Maddie has always had an appreciation for the importance of exercise and staying active, but was unsure of her career path when entering the CVCC SMES program. While at CVCC she learned an abundance of patient care and clinical skills, along with obtaining her National Academy of Sports Medicine Personal Training certification. Maddie is now a successful rehab assistant with Cleveland Performance Chiropractic, and she continues to further her education at Tri-C in pursuit of a post-graduate degree.
