Lilyanna Frantz

North Royalton

Lilyanna Frantz is a junior at North Royalton High School and is enrolled in CVCC's Construction Trades program instructed by Paul Yuravak. Lilyanna decided to attend CVCC after visiting the school on a field trip and discussing the opportunity with her dad who attended the HVAC program at CVCC. Growing up, Lilyanna has enjoyed helping her dad with projects around the house which ultimately led to her interest in construction. Lilyanna's favorite project in class so far has been learning about house foundations and having the opportunity to build a solid house foundation in class.

"Lilyanna is the Class Secretary and a student I can always count on. She holds the Programming Chair in CVCC's SkillsUSA local chapter and is also involved with the Woman in Leadership program. Lilyanna is a quiet leader and her positive work ethic shows in everything she does." -Paul Yuravak, Construction Trades instructor

After graduation, Lilyanna plans to attend college and hopes to eventually start her own construction business! Outside of academics, Lilyanna is on the color guard team at North Royalton High School and also volunteers at her church. Keep up the great work, Lilyanna!

"The Construction Trades program at CVCC has given me so many opportunities and experiences so far. Mr. Yuravak makes class so fun and truly pushes all of us to be leaders. If you're a student debating whether or not to attend CVCC, do it even if you're afraid! You will be given so many experiences and opportunities that you can't get elsewhere that will put you so far ahead." -Lilyanna Frantz
